

My Turn

The news out of Newtown, Conn still stings. It was very difficult to watch the reports over the past week and understand how anyone could target so many innocent lives. As a parent and an educator my heart aches for the loss of the loved ones and the loss of innocence. Please remember to keep the community of Newtown in your thoughts and prayers, especially the families and friends of the people whose lives were changed forever.

When tragedy strikes during the Christmas season it makes it seem even worse somehow. Maybe it's because the holiday season is supposed to be about peace, and reconnecting with family and friends.

Even with a tragedy like this, we must carry on and do the best we can for our families and ourselves. Use the holiday break to recuperate and rejuvenate as we stride into the second half of the school year. I know you all deserve a break from a busy and successful school year so far.

I have always said what a great staff we have. You are providing the knowledge and skills our students require to be successful in the real world. Thank you for all that you do, and have a Merry Christmas and a safe and happy New Year!
